Get into the swing of the festive season by visiting the Guildhall Christmas market; with hundreds of stalls selling all different kinds of beautifully made gifts, you're sure to find the perfect presents for friends and family this year.

When you're ready to take a break from shopping, you can get some tasty treats from our outdoor food stalls or the cafe in the Crypt. We'll also have a range of talks about health and well-being you can listen to during the day.

Keep your eye out for Monica Galetti signing her books Monica's Kitchen and The Skills, and stick around for the fashion show featuring designers including Camelia Couture and Green & Pink.

If you can't wait until November, start your Christmas shopping early and see what's on offer in our silent auction at www.jumblebee.co.uk/Guildhallauction2019

We'd love to hear your thoughts about the Market, so keep in touch using #GuildhallMarket
